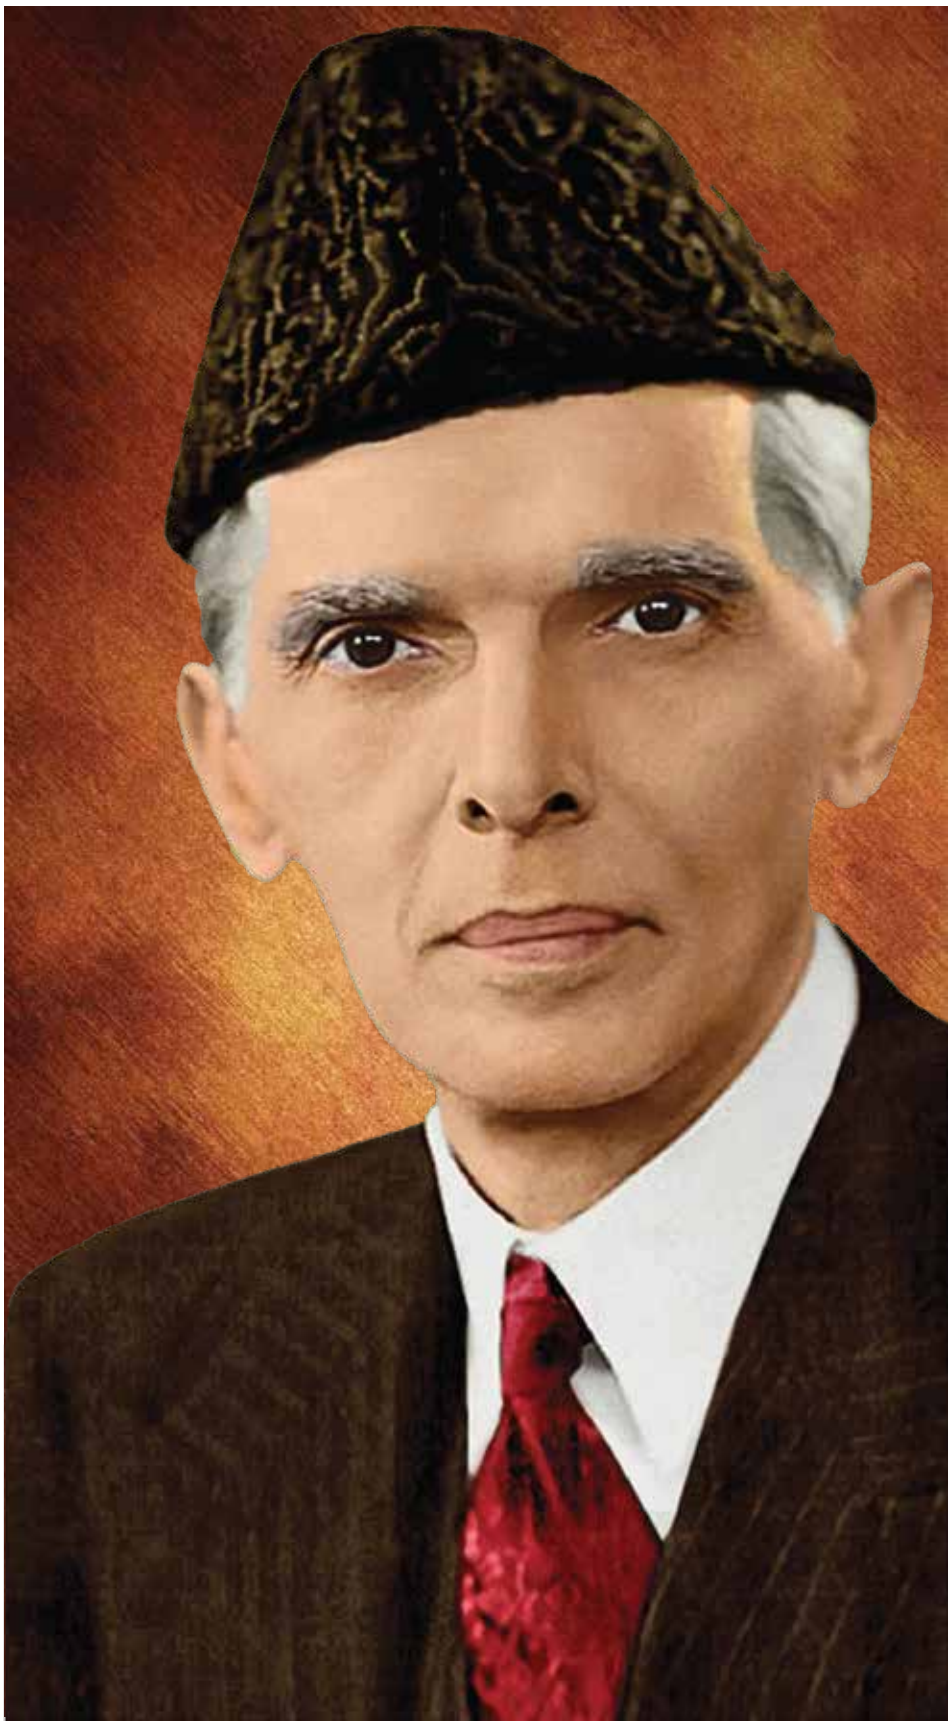
Sayings of the Quaid-e-Azam

We have to build up the character of our future generation which means highest sense of honor, integrity, selfless service to the nation, and sense of responsibility; and we have to see that they are fully qualified or equipped to play their part in various branches of economic life in a manner which will do honour to Pakistan.

Message to all Pakistan EducationalConference at karachi on Nov. 27, 1947.



Al-Haj Moulvi Reyazuddin Ahmed

(Tamgha-e-Imtiaz)

Founder of Anjuman-e-Islamia Trust and Jinnah University for Women

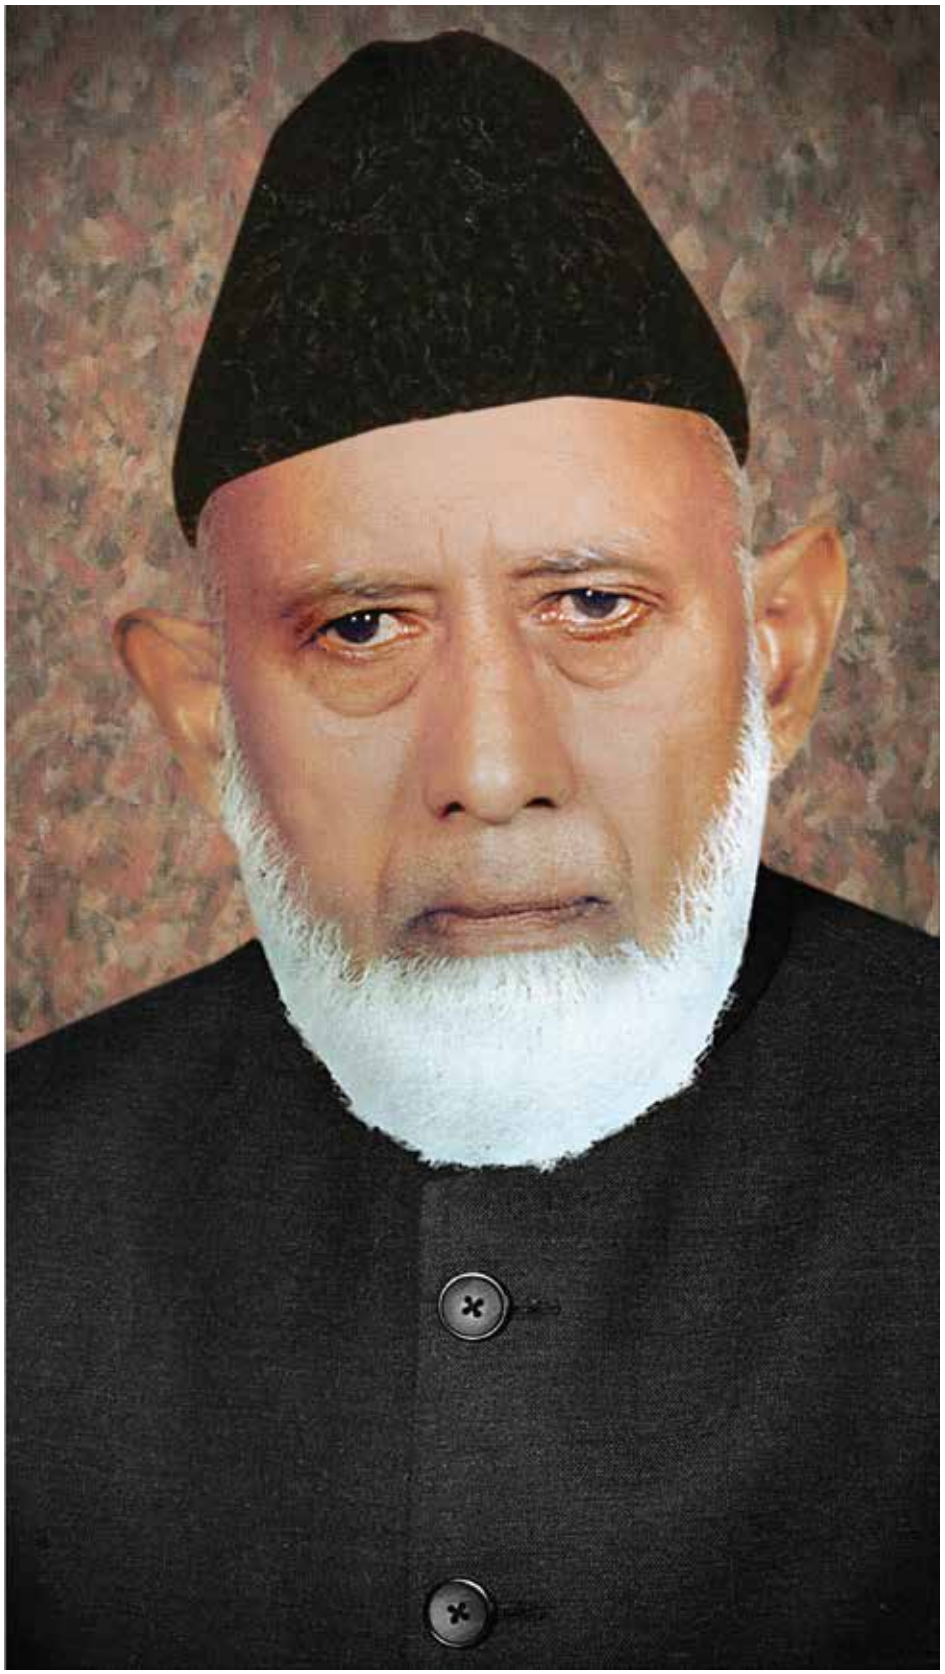
Tamgha-e-Imtiaz

"In Recognition of the meritorious work in the field of education especially for women folk, the President of Pakistan has conferred upon Tamgha-e-Imtiaz"



Al Haj Moulvi Reyazuddin Ahmed (Tamgha-e-Imtiaz), a direct descendant of Hazrat Sheikh Saleem Uddin Chishty, was born in 1906 in Agra, the city of Taj Mahal and the city of intellectuals and poets. His early upbringing through parents and education instilled in him a love for education, despite being enslaved in government service.

In that era of conventional thoughts and traditional values he envisaged that female education was of paramount importance. His revolutionary thoughts clashed with the norms of his day but his commitment and dedication to women literacy did not subside. He was, in a way, pioneer of Muslims female education in this area.

Moulvi Sahab, with his visionary insight firmly believed that status of the nation cannot be improved without the education of young girls. Therefore, he established Mahmooda Niswan School for girls and a library at Agra before partition.

Quaid-e-Azam was the person who inspired him. Moulvi Sahab believed in the dynamic leadership of Quaid-e-Azam and was very pro-active in the freedom movement under the banner of Muslim League. Seeing his dedication and love for education, Quaid-e-Azam graciously allowed Moulvi Sahab to use his name "Jinnah" for a college, he intended to establish at Agra.

After partition, he settled in Karachi and founded Anjuman-e-Islamia Trust. He continued to work for his revolutionary and innovative ideas. Lack of finances did not deter him to move away from his pursuit of spreading education. He continued his efforts with the meager amount that was donated by the Muslims of Agra but had no other financial support. It is notable that Moulvi Sahab under Anjuman-e-Islamia Trust, established many educational institutions in Karachi both for boys and girls including the following:-

1. Waseem Girls Secondary School
2. Mahmooda Girls School Liaquatabd B-I
3. Anjuman-e-Islamia School B-I
4. Anjuman-e-Islamia Secondary School Liaquatabad No.10
5. Jinnah Science Degree College Nazimabad
6. Jinnah Polytechnic Institute Nazimabad
7. Anjuman-e-Islamia Primary School for girls
8. Riaz Girls College Liaquatabad
9. Ghani Dehlvi Middle School
10. Wazir Jehan Girls Middle School Liaquatabad
11. Wazir Jehan Boys Primary School

12. Anjuman-e- Islamia Girls Secondary School Liaquatabad No.10
13. Anjuman-e-Islamia Primary School for Boys
14. Zubaida Islamia Kutub Khana
15. Mohammadi Begum Technical High School
16. Pir Elahi Bux Library Liaquatabad
17. Zubaida Polytechnic Institute Nazimabad

The First Prime Minister of Pakistan, Nawabzada Liaquat Ali Khan graciously allotted land where Moulvi Sahab established a Girls College and named it Jinnah Girls College as per authority given by Muhammad Ali Jinnah to use his name for the College.

The achievements of Moulvi Sahab and his contribution to education in general, and women in particular is well acknowledged by leading personalities of Karachi. The educational institutions setup by Moulvi Sahab have been the source of education for them and they pride in the fact that they got education from one of the institutions established by Moulvi Sahab.

The need to develope educational institutions was so vital, that Moulvi Sahab tirelessly worked with sincerity to reach this objective. He did not heritate to shed toil, tears and sweat to achieve the goals. Moulvi Sahab was firm believer of religion and was always thankful to Allah and prayed to Almighty to be able to complete his vision of providing \educational facilities to both genders but specially for girls as they are focal personality in family and can play a vital role in all issues.

This uphill task was not easy and Moulvi Sahab had to face innumerable difficulties in making his dream come true. He worked tirelessly in building brick by brick the Jinnah Girls College, which was upgraded to Jinnah Post Graduate Girls College in 1985. In 1998, the then Governor of Sindh, gave the charter for up gradation of this Post Graduate Girls College to the status of the University. This up-gradation was the reward of his consistent efforts and profound determination.

The Jinnah University for Women is now a well-known, well-established, and a Higher Education Commission recognized University, with an infrastructure that meets all requirements of Education Institution at National/International level.

Chancellor's Message

Education has become more competitive throughout the world in this twenty first century because of technological advances and globalization. The importance of private universities in Pakistan can hardly be emphasized. The expansion, however, is not meant to be at the expense of quality and relevance of education.

Wajeeh Uddin Ahmed
Chancellor

Students are the primary architect of that experience: as you design your education, thinking and planning of your education,gathering information of alternatives, choices, and challenges ahead of you. The education will help you as you start your exploration, and it will be invaluable as you consider different approaches to life ahead.

Graduating from Jinnah University for Women means growing curiosity, innovation, creativity and excellence. For we not only emphasize on critical thinking and intellectual analysis but also nurture academic excellence, promote social inclusiveness, foster a sense of civility, protect academic freedom, cultivate individual integrity, instill academic honesty, advocate accountability, encourage ethical standards, allow enriching learning opportunities and try to direct you to a gratifying career by teaching you to live by example. Our students enter into the outside world not only as competent and talented professionals but also as humble and cultured citizens. They are the role-models that others may want to follow.

In this regard my father Al-Haj Moulvi Reyazuddin Ahmed (Tamgha-e-Imtiaz) devoted to the cause of extending Educational facilities to all citizens of Pakistan, despite their gender or financial constraints.

Since its inception in 1998, the University is providing quality education and research facilities while working on no profit no loss basis.

I am confident that the University is providing all educational needs to the students at the best, hence it is recognized at all levels in the country. No doubt, this requires a lot of effort and hard work. The progress and standards achieved by the University during the past years makes me believe that all those associated with the University are working with missionary zeal and enthusiasm, and I must remind them that they should be prepared to face even greater challenges in the future.

I know that promotion of education, research, and related infrastructure are inter-related, hence we will continue our support and patronage to the University in every possible way.

I wish success to all the new entrants and hope that they will make the best use of the time that they spend here and of the facilities provided to them.

In Memoriam

Mr. Fasih Uddin Ahmed the General Secretary of Anjuman-e-Islamia Trust had the ability of successfully following the footsteps of his father late Al-Haj Moulvi Reyaz Uddin Ahmed (Tamgha-e-Imtiaz) (late). After the establishment of University, Mr. Fasih Uddin Ahmed worked day and night to complete the mission of his late father. He realized the important role of educated females in the future. With this aim, he arose to use the tool of education to empower women with his purely innate intention to serve the cause of female education. He was a humble person for the weak, the destitute and the needy. His effort continued till his death on 5th September, 2014 which created a vacuumand to feel his absense is certainly painful for every person in the campus. It is a fact that the present state of the University in terms of infrastructure, academicpersuit, and all relevant aspect in this regard is due to the tireless and sincerce devotion of Mr. Fasih Uddin Ahmed. All involved in the University are thankful to him and pray for the eternal peace of his soul (Aameen).

Fasih Uddin Ahmed
(Late)

In Memoriam

Mr. Muhammad Uzair, followed the footsteps of his great father, Al-Haj Moulvi Reyazuddin Ahmed, (Tamgha-e-Imtiaz) the founder of Anjuman-e-Islamia Trust. He was a very active, dedicated and competent member of the trust.

Mr. Muhammad Uzair, started his career as a Banker, served BCCI for a number of years, and had a great insight in the financial affairs.Moreover, he devoted time for the day to day affairs of the University. He gave all his time and energy to uplift the University, Another major area of his expertise was in civil works. He planned,guided and instructed in the construction of the University. He played a major and leading role in the physical uplift of the institution. The spacious and excellent buildings that we see today are the result of his untiring efforts. His last gift to the University was the renovated Auditorium, now named after him.The vacuum created by his loss will be difficult to fill. We will always remember him for his generous, affectionate and caring attitude. May his soul rest in peace (Aameen).

Muhammad Uzair (Late)

Vice Chancellor's Message

Education is the key which unlocks all your potential. It takes courage to grow up and become who you really are. May these inspirational graduation quotes and the degree you earned help you in thriving in the field you've chosen.

Hope we will inculcate in you the spirit of nation building and arm you with the tools to become guiding lights for others. I hope we will do our best to facilitate the transfer of wisdom and knowledge. We aim to light up the fire of original thinking and passion for service to the nation in each student.

In all this, we have made every effort to be sensitive and compassionate to the marginalized and the people in need. This has been the unique character of Jinnah University for Women. It encourages the bright and talented students performing well, but the university considers transforming a weak student to perform better its real achievement.

The University constantly strives to build on its major fronts including Leadership, Innovative Entrepreneurship, Research and Training. Over the years, Jinnah University for Women has undergone many positive transformations.

The Jinnah University for Women was founded by Al-Haj Moulvi Reyazudin Ahmed (Tamgha-e-Imtiaz) being the first Women University of Pakistan & the only women university in the Private sector of the country. According to the insight of Moulvi Sahab that women play a vital role by contributing in good governance of a country, this university finally believes that women must be given equal opportunity of education.

Further, regular research activities are supported; thereby MS/M.Phil and Ph.D programs are available in different departments.

I acknowledge the sincere efforts of the learned faculty for their dedication and hard work to make the teaching / learning process at the best.

I welcome the new entrants with a wish that they will be very productive and successful in their career.

MAJ

MOUNT PLEASANT ROAD,
MALABAR HILL

10th July, 1942.

Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your letter of 28th June 1942 and I am sorry that I could not attend to it earlier as I was away from Bombay. I have carefully considered your letter and if it is going to help you any way in establishing the college you may certainly use my name and call it "Jinnah College" as you propose to do.

Wishing you every success,

Yours sincerely,

M A Jinnah

Introduction

Vision Statement:

"Excellence in women empowerment through education"

Mission Statement:

"To develop competency and recognition of females at national and international level through imparting academic and professional skills, ethical values, research-based knowledge, and technological innovations to bring the prosperity for individuals in particular and for nation in general."

Jinnah University for Women was established in 1998 under the umbrella of Anjuman-e-Islamia Trust, which was founded by Al-Haj Moulvi Reyazuddin Ahmed (Tamgha-e-Imtiaz).

The University is one of the 17 institutions established by the Trust and is the most important, as the founder's dream was to establish a University exclusively for women.

The University supports intellectual and personal growth of students, preparing them to become transformational citizen with sound ethical, cultural, and religious values. Jinnah University for Women places great importance on increasing the quality of service delivery, providing practical-cum-industrial oriented syllabus, promoting total quality management of educational programs, ensuring a valuable campus environment for the faculty and students, increasing value added programs, and transfering the benefits of research and development to the communities in need.

To achieve these goals, the girls are empowered through quality education and are given phenomenal educational opportunities to take advantage of. They are endorsed with critical thoughts, leading them to assume roles in leadership, gain a sense of responsibility, and provide back to the society. Inherent in this broad mission are methods of instruction, research, extensive training, and public service All these are skillfully designed to educate our students and impart a keen ambition and aspiration into them to serve their own kind. Basic to every purpose of the University is the investigation of truth and remodeling of excellence.

The University has an educational tree of 05 Faculties with different Departments; providing degrees in BS: 4 Year, Pharm-D: 5 Year, BEMS 5 Year, MS/M.Phil and Ph.D.

Admission Policy:

Admission of students to the university are open exclusively for women.

Every student taking admission in the University has to be conversant with the University rules and regulations and must abide by them. Rules governing attendance and promotion are of special importance.

Students who have passed their last examination from Board, College or University outside Karachi have to submit a migration certificate from the respective institute in order to complete the enrolment formalities.

It is to be pointed out that all admissions are provisional subject to verification of documents. If any candidate secures admission on the basis of misinformation and/or fake documents, her admission will be cancelled at any time and the deposited fee shall not be returned. Suitable punitive action will also be taken which can extend up to debar from educational institution for three years.

A candidate who has already obtained a BS Degree is not eligible for re-admission or fresh admission in any other BS Programme. If any such case is noticed, the student's admission will be cancelled and legal action can be initiated against her.

Limited seats in each degree program have been allocated on the basis of merit for candidates who have passed the prerequisite examinations.

Candidates desirous of taking admission on the basis of degrees/ certificates awarded by public sector institutions in Pakistan should get the equivalence of their degrees/certificates determined by the University Equivalence Committee, before the scheduled date of admissions.

No transfer from evening program to morning program or vice versa is allowed.

If an admission of student is cancelled at her own request and she later wills to restore her admission, then it will only be restored if:

i. She has not withdrawn security deposit.

ii. Not more than one year has passed after cancellation of admission.

Admission Procedure:

For the convenience of applicants, we have outlined the steps to complete the admission application process. Please carefully read the process given below:

FACULTY OF PHARMACY

Faculty of Pharmacy was established in the year 2002 and first batch of B-Pharm students was registered in 2002. When the Pharmacy Council of Pakistan introduced the 5-year Pharm-D program to be adopted by all universities in place of the traditional 4-years B-Pharm program, the University converted the 2003 batch of students to Pharm-D Programme. This University has the distinction of producing in 2007 the first batch of Pharm-D professionals in Pakistan. The degree awarded by Jinnah University is recognized by the Pharmacy Council of Pakistan.

The Laboratories are fully furnished with latest sophisticated equipments encompassing all facts of pharmacy education. The course of Pharm-D is hospital-oriented and the students are required to acquire at least 5-week's drug and patient-oriented training in a teaching hospital. Internship training is arranged for the final year students in various National as well as International pharmaceutical companies so that the latest knowledge acquired in instrumentation, technology and industrial pharmacy could be applied practically. Our Pharm-D graduates are working in various responsible positions in renowned companies, industries and hospitals. The detail of the courses offered is given for information.

DEPARTMENT OF PHARMACEUTICS

Department of Pharmaceutics, is one of the major departments of Faculty of Pharmacy Jinnah University for women, holding about one third of the total pharmacy curricula, indicating the length of areas covered in the field of pharmaceutics. This department presently, comprises of academic as well as non-academic staff. Most of the teaching staff has doctoral and masters qualification. The department covers 28 courses spread over five years of Pharm. D program in morning and evening shifts. The department is actively involved in pharmaceutical research that covers all aspects of pharmaceutical sciences offering M.Phil and PhD programs. Following academic staff is included in this department.

DEPARTMENT OF PHARMACY PRACTICE

Pharmacy Practice is the discipline of pharmacy which involves developing the professional roles of pharmacists. The area of pharmacy practice includes immunization programs, drug information services, compounding, patient care,clinic, community, hospital, regulatory affairs and pharmacovigilance.

The Department of Pharmacy Practice at Faculty of Pharmacy, Jinnah University for Women provides student requisite knowledge as well as practical and scientific skills required for patient-oriented pharmaceutical education and other aspects of pharmacy practice. The Department of Pharmacy Practice is dedicated in providing competencies in all the aspects of pharmacy practice.

The department of pharmacy practice is actively involved in teaching and research and is supported by dedicated faculty members. At present, a number of research scholars are pursuing their work at the department.

DEPARTMENT OF PHARMACEUTICAL CHEMISTRY

The Department of Pharmaceutical Chemistry is part of the highly collaborative and interdisciplinary Faculty of Pharmacy. Department offers Pharm. D., M.Phil and Ph.D. courses encompassing organic, analytical and medicinal chemistry. All the courses have been planned in such a way that they instill the concept of variety of disciplines including Organic Chemistry, Biochemistry, Statistics, Chemo-informatics, Pharmacology and Physiology related to drug discovery and drug designing. Pharmaceutical chemistry is a discipline with a traditional focus in providing firm groundings in the field of drug designing, stability, method development, validation and quality control. Curriculum also focuses on laboratory experience supported by an excellent teaching and infrastructure. Pharmaceutical chemistry education will focus on imparting the knowledge and training which should enable students to harmonize theory with practice, concept with application, and problem with solution. It will prepare them to apply principles, practices, and processes to design, develop, deploy, and maintain drugs and instruments.

The programme will also strive to develop a capacity for innovation and a passion for lifelong learning. Research in Pharmaceutical chemistry offers diverse study opportunities and research at the interface between chemistry and biology. Faculty members are actively engaged in research studies related to different fields of drug designing like synthesis of biologically active compounds, Bioassay guided Isolation and purification of natural products,Targeted synthesis by computer aided drug designing, pharmaceutical drug interaction studies, method development, and stability and validation studies.

The program seeks to prepare graduate students to function independently, competently and technically in a variety of settings including academic, research, administrative,business management, legal, regulatory and investment career tracks. The programme will inculcate among students a strong sense of civic, professional and ethical responsibility. It will help students to enhance their ability in oral and written communication, and their adaptability to team environments.

DEPARTMENT OF PHARMACOGNOSY

Department of Pharmacognosy provides guidance and training in the field of natural product sciences to conduct quality research. Our Department tries to make a companionable place for researchers interested in natural products to have a productive and pleasant outcome. The mission of this department is to train students according to the high quality education and latest scientific information, to explore the indigenous flora and fauna for the treatment of prevalent diseases, integrate the discipline of natural medicine in Research & Development departments of different pharmaceutical and herbal industries, design newer techniques for extraction and isolation for natural products used as pharmaceuticals, nutraceuticals, and cosmeceuticals and to serve as a consultation hub for the pharmaceutical industry and community.

The department of pharmacognosy is actively involved in teaching and research and is supported by dedicated faculty members. At present, a number of research scholars are pursuing their work at the department.

DEPARTMENT OF PHARMACOLOGY

Pharmacology is the science concerned with all aspects of drugs including their mechanism of action, adverse effects and clinical applications. Our vision is to develop our Faculty of Pharmacy in general and the Department of Pharmacology in particular into a leading professional institute recognized by its quality pharmacy education, innovative research and service to society and profession. The major academic objective of the department is to educate the students regarding fundamental knowledge of drugs and train them in rational use of drugs. The Department houses a well-equipped laboratory with experimental devices like Power Lab, Kymograph, Tissue Organ Bath. There are spacious and well-resourced lecture halls equipped with latest audiovisual aids to teach courses of Pharmacology. The core curriculum and syllabus approved by Pakistan Pharmacy Council and Higher Education Commission of Pakistan are followed to provide quality preclinical and clinical education in Pharmacology and Therapeutics.

FACULTY OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION & COMMERCE

Vision:

Our vision is to equip women with latest knowledge and innovative managerial skills to explore new businesses.

Mission:

Our Mission is to produce professional competent female business leaders by equipping them with such tools, market trends, and techniques so that they can meet the emerging challenges for sustainable survival in the modern Business world.

Prof. Dr. Dilshad Zafar
Dean Faculty of Business Administration & Commerce

Success in acquiring knowledge stems from a blend of brilliance, competitiveness and quest for knowledge. We at Jinnah University for women own this nascent state of students towards meeting the emerging challenges in the business world. The enduring significance of learning is the appetite of "What is next" and the joy of not "deserting ideals" to attain a fruitful career. It is a matter of great satisfaction that our graduating MBAs get recognition of their talents in the shape of lucrative job offers which is a conclusive proof of academic excellence and professional vocational education being imparted at our university. We keep regular contact with the Prospective Employers who at the first instance offer internship facility to our students in their field of specialization and then match the job profile available at their end.

We place heavier accent on the premises that a well educated business woman is more likely to succeed than one who is not educated. It is here that, to accommodate a wide variety of management career aims, we not only meet women education needs in simpler and less costly ways, but we develop their potential to gainfully exercise the skills and knowledge obtained while learning. In the year 2022 we have started MBA 1.5 weekend programe.

Adding on the spectrum of morning classes of BBA and MBA degrees, we have launched evening program for BBA and executive MBA in academic year 2009 in order to cater to the needs of working women.

By the grace of Allah, we hope to continue "up the road" imparting quality education.

Programs Offered:

BBA (Morning/Evening)	4 Years
MBA (Business Administration) (Morning/Weekend) (Equivalent to M.Phil)	1.5 Years
MBA (Non Business Background)	2 Years
MBA (Health & Management Science)	2 Years
M.Phil	Minimum 2 Years

COMMERCE

Established in 2000, the Department of Commerce at Jinnah University for Women is dedicated to empowering female students through high-quality education in Business and Commerce. Initially launched with a two-year degree program, the department transitioned to a three-year honors degree in 2005 and further expanded in 2007 with the introduction of a four-year BS PROGRAM in Commerce. In response to evolving academic and industry needs, a flexible Associate Degree Program (ADP) was introduced in 2016. Most recently, in 2025, the department launched a four-year degree program BS in Accounting and Finance, to offer students a specialized path in financial studies. Another milestone achieved by offering BS in Islamic Baking and Finance from the academic year of 2026. The department is supported by a team of qualified faculty, a well-equipped computer lab, and a library with updated academic and professional resources. To bridge the gap between theory and practice, the department regularly organizes seminars, workshops, internships, and guest speaker sessions, equipping students with the skills and insights necessary to thrive in real-world business environments

Programs Offered

- BS in Commerce (4 Years)
- BS in Accounting and Finance (4 Years)
- BS in Islamic Banking & Finance (4 Years)

BOTANY

VISION

Elevating Botanical knowledge and research to empower a sustainable future, fostering innovation and understanding profound impact of plant's life on our world.

MISSION

The Department of Botany is committed to producing qualified graduates of BS & MS levels with the capacity and capability to conduct research in different areas of botany, such as Plant Physiology, Taxonomy, Genetics, Cytology, Molecular Biology, Genetics, and Entrepreneurial Botany, etc. The department aims to maintain a high level of integrity and responsibility at the individual and departmental levels to empower women to actively participate in the development of the country and nation with advanced technology as well as recent knowledgein the field of Botany to accommodate assertively in the modern world. It is our task to provide trained manpower for Educational Research, Forest, Agriculture & Industrial organizations, and other sectors such as medicinal research, the textile sector, the leather industry, pharmaceutical, and biotechnological companies.

DEPARTMENT OF BIOLOGY

Introduction

The program of BS offers a comprehensive and balanced foundation in the biological sciences, with equal emphasis on both plant and animal life. The program is designed to develop a thorough understanding of the structure, function, diversity, and evolution of living organisms across all levels of biological organization—from molecular and cellular processes to ecosystems and biospheres. Students will study a wide range of interrelated subjects including botany, zoology, physiology, microbiology, genetics, ecology, and biotechnology. The curriculum integrates theoretical instruction with hands-on laboratory and fieldwork, enabling students to explore the complexities of life in both flora and fauna. This balanced approach ensures that graduates are well versed in the biological principles and research methodologies relevant to both the plant and animal domains. In addition to foundational and specialized coursework, the program offers opportunities for interdisciplinary learning and application, equipping students to critically examine biological phenomena, conduct experiments, analyze data, and propose evidence-based solutions to biologicaland ecological problems.

The BS Biology program prepares graduates for diverse career paths in research, education, healthcare, agriculture, biotechnology, conservation, and public policy. It fosters scientific thinking, ethical responsibility, and a deep appreciation of life's diversity, aiming to produce professionals who contribute meaningfully to science and society through a well-rounded understanding of both plant and animal biology.

Program Learning Outcomes

By the completion of Bachelor of Science in Biology, the graduates will be able to:

a) Understand the fundamental concepts within the core domains of biological sciences, including both plant and animal biology.

b) Apply biological knowledge and scientific reasoning to investigate, analyze, and interpret biological phenomena at molecular, cellular, organismal, and ecological levels.

c) Demonstrate proficiency in basic laboratory techniques and modern biological tools used in the study and research of living organisms.

d) Analyze the interrelationships among living organisms and between organisms and their environments, with a balanced understanding of both botanical and zoological systems.

BIOCHEMISTRY

INTRODUCTION:

Established in 1998, the Department of Biochemistry at Jinnah University for Women has emerged as a beacon of excellence in both education and research. The department of Biochemistry proudly hosts a diverse and highly qualified faculty, including seven Ph.D. and three M.Phil. degree holders, who are dedicated to nurturing the next generation of biochemists and molecular biologists.

Academic Programs:

The department offers a wide array of academic programs designed to cater the needs of students at various levels of their educational journey. In addition to the core BS, MS, and Ph.D. programs in Biochemistry, the department has expanded its academic reach by offering BS and AD programs in Molecular Biology. These programs are meticulously structured to provide students with a robust foundation in both theoretical and practical aspects of the field, ensuring they are well-prepared for future challenges.

Objectives:

1. To provide a broad, innovative, and quality education in all areas of Biochemistry.
2. To develop creative and management skills.
3. To build good communication skills both in report writing and in technical presentations.
4. To foster a deep understanding of the ethical implications and responsibilities associated with conducting research and working in the field of Biochemistry.
5. To promote critical thinking and problem-solving abilities through hands-on laboratory experiences and research projects.
6. To prepare students for either advanced studies in Biochemistry or careers in Educational Institutes/Industry/ Hospitals/Laboratories etc.

Research Excellence and Collaboration:

The department excels in both basic and applied research, fostering a multidisciplinary and collaborative environment that brings together scholars and researchers from diverse fields within the chemical and biological sciences. This dynamic atmosphere not only encourages innovation but also facilitates groundbreaking discoveries. Faculty research is at the forefront of scientific inquiry, encompassing a broad spectrum of areas, including Molecular Biochemistry, Genomics and Proteomics, Biotechnology, Clinical Biochemistry, Haematology, Neurochemistry, Bioinformatics, Enzymology, and Nutritional Biochemistry.

The Department of Biochemistry actively engages with an Industry Advisory Board and collaborates with various universities and research organizations. This network plays a crucial role in facilitating Internships and Capstone Projects for students, ensuring they gain valuable practical experience. Additionally, the department organizes training session and workshop in partnership with these collaborators to enhance the research skills and market readiness of students. These initiatives are designed to bridge the gap between academic knowledge and real-world applications, preparing students for successful careers in the field of biochemistry.

State-of-the-Art Facilities:

The Department of Biochemistry at Jinnah University for Women is not only equipped with cutting-edge classrooms and laboratories, but it also boasts specialized research facilities. Among these is an exclusively designed Research Lab dedicated to MS and Ph.D. students, providing them with an environment tailored for advanced scientific inquiry and experimentation. In addition, the department features a fully equipped Molecular Biology and PCR Labs, a unique facility within the university, dedicated specifically to advanced biochemistry research. This facility is pivotal for molecular biology research, enabling precise DNA amplification and analysis, which are crucial for studies in genomics, diagnostics, and various other applications. The Department of Biochemistry also includes a modern Computer Lab with over 60 computers, supporting a wide range of computational needs for both research and education. This facility ensures that students and researchers have access to up-to-date technology for data analysis, bioinformatics, and other computational tasks integral to modern biochemistry research.

Career Opportunities:

Biochemists have diverse career opportunities including but not limited to:

1) Educational Institutes including universities, colleges and schools
2) Industries
3) Hospitals
4) Clinical Pathology Laboratories
5) Environmental Sector
6) Pharmaceutical Companies
7) Biotechnology Firms
8) Forensic Labs
9) Clinical Research Organizations
10) Government Research Agencies
11) Patent and Intellectual Property Firms

Mission:

The Department of Biochemistry at Jinnah University for Women is dedicated to providing a rigorous and inclusive learning environment that cultivates critical thinking, ethical responsibility, and a lifelong passion for Biochemistry. Through high-quality education and innovative research, the department addresses local and global challenges in health, the environment, and society. By leveraging faculty expertise and fostering a collaborative academic culture, it aims to enhance scientific knowledge, promote societal well-being, and prepare students for meaningful contributions in their fields.

Vision:

The Department of Biochemistry at Jinnah University for Women envisions a future where scientific innovation and ethical excellence converge to shape a better world. The aspiration is to become a global leader in Biochemistry education and research, empowering women to excel in the dynamic fields of life sciences.

DEPARTMENT OF BIOTECHNOLOGY

Biotechnology is the technology based science that uses living systems to make beneficial products to improve the live and health of human beings. It is basically the science for human welfare.

Biotechnology also uses genetic engineering techniques to improve the characters of living organism. Biotechnology is a frontline discipline of applied sciences with extensive potential for the welfare of mankind.

The Department of Biotechnology, JUW was established in 2012 with the aim to provide female students with the knowledge that creates a robust foundation for understanding developments and advancements in the rapidly growing field of biotechnology, to enhance the critical thinking and technical skills of students, to strengthen ethical attitude and to encourage outreach, giving the nation with highly trained professionals who are capable to execute the scientific procedures for the constant improvement of biotechnological services and products with value, safety and quality.

Chairperson : Dr. Ayisha Aman Ullah

Vision

- To use living organisms to create new products and technologies, making science fiction a reality.

Mission

- To convey in-depth knowledge about various concepts in biotechnology.
- To provide the perfect blend of the oretical knowledge and practical exposure for the development of biotechnology professionals
- To enable students to employ scientific strategies for designing experimental research studies and critically evaluates the results.
- To furnish students with legal aspects and ethical and moral values while performing research in various disciplines of applied sciences.
- To endorse students for providing solution to local problems through innovative research and contributing to society through advance research

CHEMISTRY

Department is to provide a comprehensive, relevant curriculum for the undergraduate/graduate level and producing knowledgeable graduates for pursuing careers in academia, industry and government sectors. Department is continuously promoting the collegial exchange of ideas, independent thoughts, and the highest ethical standards. Diverse, dynamic, and innovative research programs offered in the department. Chemistry department have strong cross-disciplinary collaborations both within and outside the university. Many of the students go for training/internship in the reputable research institutes and industries so that they may act as mentors in different fields of life.

Vision

To be a center of excellence in chemical education, research, and innovation, producing globally competitive graduates who contribute to scientific advancement and sustainable development.

Mission

The mission of Department of Chemistry is struggling hard to achieve the level of an internationally-recognized institution in the field of Chemistry and Chemical Sciences, where students are prepared to face the challenges of modern ever-demanding and technology-centered world. To that end, the department is committed to provide:

I: Provide high-quality instruction in chemistry that equips students with a strong foundation in chemical principles and laboratory skills.

II: Provide knowledge for critical thinking, ethical practices, and a spirit of inquiry through research and community engagement.

III: Prepare graduates for careers in industry, academia, and government or for further studies in chemistry and related fields

IV: Promote sustainable and innovative solutions to scientific and societal challenges through collaborative efforts.

Degree program

I: Bachelor of Studies (BS) in Chemistry

II: Associate Degree program (ADP) in Chemistry

II: Master of Studies (MS) in Chemistry

III: Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) in Chemistry

DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER SCIENCE AND SOFTWARE ENGINEERING

The Department of Computer Science and Software Engineering, Jinnah University for Women was established with the aim to equip female students with the technologies that shape the world. The department has made utmost effort to turn this aim into reality, and now there are hundreds of students across Pakistan and beyond, leading others in their own sphere, who identify this place as their prestigious alma mater.

The department offers six degree programs that are BS (Computer Science), BS (Software Engineering), BS (Data Science), MS (Computer Science), MS (Software Engineering) and Ph.D (Computer Science). The degree programs are accredited from National Computing Education Accreditation Council (NCEAC).

We endeavor to make things reachable for students that are trending within field. Department has more than 12 well-equipped computing laboratories exclusively for Computer Science and Software Engineering students.

Department has also focused upon the need of extending the research program for which the Centre for Computing Research was established. Faculty members and students are actively involved in research activities leading to publications in national/ international conferences and journals. Department encourages extracurricular activities that are focused on the development and growth of students. Department also organizes annual technological events such as JTECH, Women in Computing, Techvend, etc. Workshops and seminars on emerging technologies are organized on a regular basis in which students are provided with the opportunity to learn from industry experts on diverse disciplines.

Student Societies are also functional to train students to become better individuals in personal as well as communal space. Community Welfare Society, Robotic Society, Debating Society, Mathelets Society, Entrepreneurship Society and Dramatic Society are operating under the supervision of faculty members.

Internship program is also offered in which students can go for both in-house internships as well as industry internships. These programs help them in gaining experiences that are beneficial in professional life. From interns to employment,our students are serving in reputable national as well as international organizations.

Vision

Department of Computer Science and Software Engineering aims to serve the nation by preparing a generation of ethical, visionary and innovative female computing professionals and researchers

Mission

- Provide high quality academic programs in computing
- Provide an outstanding educational experience in the contented environment for females
- Provide a platform for promoting collaborative and multidisciplinary activities in service of community
- Instilling strong ethical values, professional behavior, research capabilities and leadership abilities.

SCHEME OF COURSES FOR BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN COMPUTER SCIENCE BS (CS) (FOUR YEARS OR EIGHT SEMESTERS)

The basic intention of an academic program in Computer Science is to develop the student's critical professional thinking and intuition. The curriculum is structured to provide a balanced mixture of learning experiences to make the graduate capable of sound professional decisions. As a result the graduate Will be able to assume responsible positions in business, government, and education at the research, development, and planning levels.The program also provides an excellent foundation for further formal learning and training. The Computer Science curriculum is expected to provide environments to put into practice, the principles and techniques learnt during the course of implementation of academic program.

The following summarizes some key Program Educational Objectives for consideration as a basis of a successful academic program in Computer Science:

i. Graduates will be able to exhibit and apply comprehensive knowledge in the Computer Science domain as proficient professionals.
ii. Graduates will be able to communicate, develop and manage their work responsibly as individuals and in teams.
iii. Graduates will be able to demonstrate professional attitudes and ethics in consideration of societal obligation and computing practices.
iv. Graduates will be able to learn emerging technologies and continue professional development and lifelong learning.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN SOFTWARE ENGINEERING BS (SE) 4-YEARS PROGRAM (8 SEMESTERS) (137 CREDIT HOURS)

The objective of the program is to prepare students for professional careers and for graduate studies in software engineering. The curriculum is structured to provide a balance between computing theory and practical application of software engineering concepts including software project management, methodologies, tools and technologies in the modern software development environments.

Graduates of the program will be able to function as proficient software developers and effective team members. They will have grounding in communication, mathematics and science, and the cultural, historical, and social issues that influence and effect or relate to the development of high-quality software systems. They will have knowledge of and experience with software product engineering and engineering management and an understanding of professional issues and practices. The curriculum is designed to ensure breadth across allied disciplines and supporting subjects; and depth in most areas of the software engineering body of knowledge. Following are the Program Educational Objectives:

i. Graduates will be able to exhibit and apply comprehensive knowledge in the Software Engineering domain as proficient professionals
ii. Graduates will be able to communicate, develop and manage their work responsibly as individuals and in teams
iii. Graduates will be able to demonstrate professional attitudes and ethics in consideration of societal obligation and computing practices.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN DATA SCIENCE BS (DS)
4- YEARS PROGRAM (8 SEMESTERS) (133 CREDIT HOURS)

The basic intention of an academic program in Data Science is to develop the student's critical professional thinking and intuition. BS (Data Science) has a dual emphasis on basic principles of statistics and computer science, with foundational training in statistical and mathematical aspects of data analysis. This program develops foundation on broad computer science principles, including algorithms, data structures, data management and machine learning. This program will prepare graduates for a career in data analysis, combining foundational statistical concepts with computational principles from computer science.

The following summarizes some key Program educational objectives for consideration as a basis of a successful academic program in Data Science:

PEO 1 Graduates will be able to exhibit comprehensive knowledge in the Data Science domain as proficient professionals

PEO 2 Graduates will be able to design and implement efficient, data-driven solutions to real-world problems

PEO 3 Graduates will be able to communicate, develop and manage their work responsibly as individuals and in teams

PEO 4 Graduates will be able to demonstrate professional attitudes and ethics in consideration of societal obligation and computing practices.

PEO 5 Graduates will be able to learn emerging technologies and continue professional development and lifelong learning.

JTECH 2025

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN SOFTWARE ENGINEERING

The mission of the Master of Science (Software Engineering) program is to equip students with theoretical and applied knowledge of software for the solution of complex problems. It is aimed to prepare the students to learn independently in a constantly changing discipline.

Program Objectives:

The objectives of MS (Software Engineering) program are:

1. Prepare students who can critically apply concepts, theories and practices to provide creative solutions of complex computing problems.
2. Prepare students who can define, plan, implement and test a medium-sized software project using appropriate software engineering processes, methods and techniques.
3. Prepare students to effectively communicate their ideas in written and electronic form, and prepare them to work collaboratively in a team environment.
4. Prepare students with a theoretical software engineering background and applied research needed to enter a doctorate program in software engineering.
5. Prepare students to join an appropriate and respectable level position in a computing-related field, and to maintain their professional skills in rapidly evolving field.

Eligibility Criteria:

The minimum requirements for admission in a Master degree program are:

Sixteen years of education (130 credit hours) in a relevant computing subject with a minimum CGPA of 2.2 (on a scale of 4.0).

Students are required to pass admission entry test conducted by the university or GAT-General (www.nts.org.pk/gat/gat.asp) conducted by the National Testing Service with a minimum 50% cumulative score. The GAT-General test is valid for a period of two years

Note:

The university may recommend deficiency courses, after considering the educational background and knowledge of the candidate.

Duration

Minimum duration for completion of MS degree is two years. HEC allows a maximum period of four years to complete MS degree requirements

Degree Completion Requirements

To become eligible for award of MS degree, a student must satisfy the following requirements:

a) Must have earned CGPA (Cumulative Grade Point Average) of at least 2.5 on a scale of 4.0.

b) Must have studied and passed the 24 credit hours of courses from the prescribed course list and successfully completed 6 credit hours of Thesis/Research Work.

University may allow the student to do course work of 6 credit hours in lieu of 6 credit hours of research. This exemption can only be allowed if the student wants to terminate.

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN COMPUTER SCIENCE

The mission of the MS (Computer Science) program is to prepare students to create, apply, and impart knowledge in computer science and to develop independent researchers who can become effective problem solver and have a broad perspective on the established and emerging fields of computing and will actively contribute and serve the local and global communities.

Program Objectives

The MS (Computer Science) comprises of both course work as well as research component. There are four core courses' aimed at strengthening the understanding and competence of students in computer science fundamentals. The University expects its MS graduates to pursue careers either as 'Computer Science Faculty Members' or as 'Software Development Managers' in the industry

Learning Outcomes

1. Students will be able to possess advanced knowledge of Computer Science field
2. Students will be able to think creatively and critically; to solve non-trivial problems
3. Students will be able to use computing knowledge to develop efficient solutions for real life problems
4. Students will be able to design solutions and can conduct research related activities

The following core courses are recommended to be completed before entering the MS (CS) program.

1. Analysis of Algorithms
2. Assembly Lang. / Computer Architecture
3. Computer Networks
4. Computer Programming
5. Data Structures
6. Database Systems
7. Operating Systems
8. Software Engineering
9. Theory of Automata

A student selected for admission having deficiency in the above stated courses may be required to study a maximum of FOUR courses, which must be passed in the first two semesters. Deficiency courses shall be determined by the Admissions Committee, before admitting the student.

A student cannot register in MS courses, unless all specified deficiency courses have been passed.

Ph.D COMPUTER SCIENCE

Introduction

The Ph.D program in Computer Science offers a comprehensive and professionally-oriented education that combines the foundation of computer science with the applied and in-demand skills necessary for careers in existing and emerging technologies

The Ph.D program in Computer Science encourages students to tackle both coursework and research in parallel; success in both of these components is a necessary requirement for the award of the Ph.D degree.

The Ph.D program requires candidates to undertake a number of graduate level courses, pass a qualifying examination, and then carry out research in a chosen area. The candidates are required to publish research papers in peer-reviewed international conference proceedings and recognized credible journals.

Ph.D Program Outcomes

- Students will be able to exhibit specialized domain knowledge and ability to use appropriate research methodology in the relevant field of study.
- Students will be able to conduct systematic and focused research.
- Students will be able to publish research papers in journals and conference proceedings of international repute.
- Students will be able to conduct and supervise independent research and can produce innovative knowledge.

Objectives of the Program

The objectives of Ph.D program are to:

1. Prepare students who can critically apply concepts, theories and practices to provide creative solutions of Complex computing problems.
2. Prepare highly qualified researchers required for the expansion of fundamental knowledge and technological innovation through research and development, as well as the needs of institutions of higher learning.
3. Prepare students who can exhibit technical communication, collaboration and mentoring skills and assume roles both as team members and as team leaders in research and development in the computing field.
4. Prepare students who can adapt technological advances through active participation in life-long learning.
5. Prepare students who can exhibit a reasoned understanding of professional ethics and the roles of regulations and guidelines in the profession, including global cultural awareness and environmental impacts

FOOD SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

Vision

Our aim is to prepare future leaders of excellence in industry, research and public sectors in different areas of Food Scienceand Technology.

Mission

Our mission is to provide a solid educational experience and professional services to the students from a diverse background through the diffusion and integration of knowledge of Food Science and Technology.

A heartfelt salute to our incredible volunters who brought the magic to JIFT-2024!

Step into the captivating world of JIFT-2024 with these mesmerizing glimpse.

Congratulations to the Department of Food Science & Technology - JUW student for their remarkable victory in the pitching competition for cohort 2024 held by JUBIC at Jinnah University for Women.

An enlightening visit to Agha Khan hospital for our Human Nutrition and Dietitics 1st year students!

- In semester II, 2 elective courses will be offered.

THIRD SEMESTER TO SIXTH SEMESTER (12 Credit Hours)

Thesis: 12 Credit hours

TOTAL CREDIT HOURS = 18 (Course work) + 12 (Thesis) = 30

MPhil students of the Department of Food Science and Technology, JUW, gained hands-on industry experience at Peek Freans (EBM).

Students of the Department of Food Science & Technology visited PepsiCo as part of their industrial exposure.

Students from DFST participated in the IC SDGs Conference 2024, gaining exposure to global sustainability initiatives and food industry innovations.

Students of the Department of Food Science & Technology visited Governor House to participate in the Independence Day celebration.

JUW Food Science Department organized JIFT 2025, showcasing innovative final year research in food technology

JUW Food Science students visited Dalda Foods for hands-on learning in processing and quality assurance.

The Department of Food Science and Technology, JUW, participated in IBRAS-2025.

JUW Food Science students visited Metro Pakistan for insights into retail operations and food quality management.

JUW Food Science students won a Special Prize at the DUHS DICE Health Exhibition 2025, showcasing innovation and excellence.

DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS

Vision

Empower women in the field of Science through Mathematics.

Mission

Provide excellence inequitable academic environment for learning that fosters appreciation of Mathematics and develops knowledge, creativity, innovation, confidence, collaborative, and critical thinking skills with social and moral values to produce future female graduates, researchers and prepare them to meet the challenges of modern era. Also promotes the ability to work with mathematical concepts in other disciplines.

DEPARTMENT OF MICROBIOLOGY

Microbiology is a field of science that deals with bacteria, viruses, algae, fungi, and protozoa found in our environment. It provides knowledge of the cellular and metabolic pathways of microbes. It gives an understanding of how microorganisms develop infectious diseases. In the current scenario, various epidemic and pandemic cases highlighted the importance of Microbiology as a field of choice to develop their career. It also deals with genetic manipulation of beneficial microorganisms to produce metabolites used in various industries and health sector. The dynamic behavior of microorganisms helps to understand and solve medical and environmental problems. Recent advances in Microbiology like Genomics, Proteomics, Metabolomics, Synthetic Biology, and Nano biotechnology have made it more demanding.

The department of Microbiology, Jinnah University for Women was established in 1985 to impart quality education for females at undergraduate and postgraduate levels. The department has full-time dedicated and trained faculty in their respective fields, provides the best of their knowledge to the students. Department of Microbiology has well-equipped labs with all relevant facilities for research and development to assist students and cater to their research needs.

Presently, the department offers Bachelor of Science (BS) Four years program with specializations in Clinical Microbiology, Food Microbiology, and Molecular Biology. Besides, the department also offers degrees in Master of Science (MS) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) programs. The department provides an excellent opportunity for students to learn and gain hands-on experience, an excellent environment for collaboration with investigators nationally and internationally.

Our alumni work in pathological laboratories, pharmaceutical industries, food and dairy processing industries, marine fisheries, water industries, biotechnological industries, agriculture sector, scientific laboratory technicians, clinical research associates, research organizations, and in academia of public and private sectors.

VISION

Women empowerment through quality education and skill development in Microbiology.

MISSION

To develop the academic processes, to augment scientific research through tactical strategy and a distinct vision for science & technology at the national level, to train young scholars, and to introduce a methodology developed to encounter the diverse needs of the nation and to serve well the several research and developmental projects in the community.

Programs Offered:

Bachelor of Science (BS) in Microbiology
Master of Science (MS) in Microbiology
Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) in Microbiology

Associate Degree (AD) is not offered in Microbiology as per NCRC guidelines given in HEC Curriculum booklet – Microbiology (2025): page #2.

Bachelor of Science (BS) in Microbiology

Vision

'To strengthen the current microbiological studies and research activities to meet national and international requirement'.

Mission

'The mission is to promote trained graduates and produce skilled manpower for industry'.

Duration of BS program: 4 years

Objectives of BS Program:

Following are the objectives of BS Microbiology program: -

1.To enable Microbiology students with the foundations & cope up with issues for wide spectrum of areas including medicine, dairy, food, poultry, agriculture, fisheries and pharmaceutical industries.
2.To enable students to develop practical and logical skills that bring qualitative change in the country.
3.To provide internship for students in different fields of microbiology by establishing liaison between microbiology with society and industry.
4.To step into research and development effectiveness.
5.To enable students to develop communication and entrepreneurship skills as per market demand.
6.To develop effective team work, time management and planning abilities among students.
7.To provide effective learning environment and mentoring for the students to achieve their objectives.

Master of Science (MS) in Microbiology

Vision

To strengthen the current microbiological studies and research activities to meet national and international requirements.

Mission

The program provides students with opportunities to acquire the knowledge and skills needed to embark on careers as independent microbiologists

Duration of MS program: 2-4 years

Objectives of MS Program

Following are the objectives of MS Microbiology program: -

1. To provide advanced theoretical knowledge to students related to emerging fields of Microbiology.
2. To provide research training related to diversity of microorganisms exists in environment.
3. To enable candidate to write research reports with an aim to augment student's skills for presenting data using statistical tools.
4. To resolve the problems associated with new and emerging diseases.
5. To develop leadership qualities among students, which they benefit society, industry, education and can develop regulatory policies.
6. To inculcate the scientific ethics and temperament to contribute to field of science and help in nation building.

The Department of Microbiology at Jinnah University for Women, in collaboration with ASM, Sindh Health Department, and WHO, held a seminar on Typhoid Conjugate Vaccine on May 11, 2024.T

Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) in Microbiology

Vision

To strengthen the current microbiological studies and research activities to meet national and international requirements.

Mission

PhD Program in Microbiology prepares the scholars for careers in academics and research. The curriculum will train them at high standards of scientific literacy and to develop research skills.

Duration of PhD program: 3-8 years

Objectives of PhD Program

Following are the objectives of PhD Microbiology program: -

1. To provide advanced theoretical knowledge to students related to emerging fields of Microbiology.
2. To provide research training related to diversity of microorganisms exists in environment.

DEPARTMENT OF ZOOLOGY

VISION

The vision of Department of Zoology is to expose students to new technologies, and approaches including bioinformatics, remote, digital image analysis and microscopic and physiological tools that help them to build a route to careers and further education in fields ranging from environmental science to biomedical research.

MISSION

I) Preparation of liable trained manpower in Zoology, teaching and research.

II) To sensibilise human society for animal welfare, conservation and protection of biodiversity.

III) To provide transformational, integrated and value-based captivative learning experiences to students

FACULTY OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

Vision:

Our Vision is to empower the women of our society to educate through Social Sciences.

Mission:

Our Mission is to enlighten the academic and professional education, skills and ethical values through technological innovations and research based knowledge towards uplifting and development of our society. Faculty of Social Sciences consists Ten departments. Out of ten departments, only Eight, Economics, Education, English, International Relations,Islamic Learning, Media Studies, Psychology and Visual Studies are having Degree Programs and running effectively. While remaining three departments Political Science, Urdu and Sociology are having compulsory and minor courses in the University. Further more we are conducting M.Phil/MS & Ph.D programs in Education, Islamic Learning and Media Studies. To endeavor of all the departments are to prepare students of Undergraduate and Post graduate Degree programs with the ability to become useful and creative citizens of the country.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Introduction

Education department is one of the pioneer departments of the university established in 1988 when it was the post graduate college. With the growing needs of rapidly changing world and continuous expansion of knowledge within developing countries, education has become even more essential as a tool to attain certain standards of the quality of human life as well as to maintain the pace of development. Education department at Jinnah University for Women enables its students to draw on a wide range of intellectual resources, theoretical perspectives and academic disciplines, to provide an understanding of education and the context in which it takes place. Here students study the foundation discipline of Education, History, Philosophy, Psychology and Sociology and can appreciate their contribution to our understanding of educational policy and the process and practice of education. The main focus of the department is to prepare human capital in the field of education as teachers, educators, educational leaders and researchers. Innovative methods and techniques of teaching and learning in the area of education have made this department parallel with that of the international standards. Education department of JUW has been playing a leading role in preparing a competitive, knowledgeable and skilled force of teachers and teacher educators who are willing to accept the challenges of present time in the field of education within and outside the country. The department provides opportunities for the enhancement of knowledge and new dimension of specializations to both the student and the faculty members. In this regard beside BS program, B.Ed (4years) /ADE, B.Ed(1.5 &2.5) and M.Phil/PhD programs have been offered by the department. The department believes in providing high quality education through committed, devoted and skilled faculty and tries to produce professionals having clear vision of future and desire to contribute in the progress of our country.

Education is an important discipline in social sciences. Therefore, graduated students of Education department have sample opportunities in the competitive job market. Educational Management and Administration, Career Counseling, Schools, Colleges, Teacher training institutes, Human Resources Development centers, Professional Institutes, Dept of Health Education, Research industry and NGO based organization are the possible fields for the graduated students in Education.

Vision

This department has a vision to see the female graduates capable to draw a wide range of intellectual resources, theoretical prospective and academic disciplines, to provide an in depth understanding among the students by sharing latest teaching skills and methodologies in order to enhance their experiences to impart knowledge at par with the international standards.

Mission

Mission of the department is to provide students educational facilities with an understanding to study the foundation disciplines of education- philosophy, psychology history, and sociology and make them capable to appreciate their contribution to the understanding of educational policies, process and practice of education. To provide them help to deal with fundamental questions concerning the aims and values of education and their impact on society, and to develop expertise within this field. The students aim to understand the contemporary issues in the society and engage themselves in research work leading to M.Phil./PhD.

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

The Department started functioning from the very first day of the inauguration of this University. We feel proud to say that the Department has been progressing from year to year to attain newer heights. Recent graduates of our department have successfully entered the fields of communication, research, media and journalism, fine arts, government, law, armed forces, corporate management, social services and academia; and are playing a significant role in society.

The endeavour of the Department is to prepare students of BS English & ADP to acquire confidence and independence with ability to reflect critically, and become responsible and creative citizens of the country. Also to inculcate in them, a spirit of understanding, tolerance and respect for other cultures, faiths and lifestyles; and to make them aware of the different varieties of Englishes used nowadays. It will also help the students to know the basics of English Language and its proper use. These are effectively achieved by studying, analyzing and reflecting in a critical and positive manner.

English Department owns experienced and well-qualified faculty that aims to equip students with academic and professional knowledge as well. The department also provides students with various opportunities to demonstrate their knowledge and skills that contribute to the society and community development.

We believe in hard work, honesty and consistency.

DEPARTMENT OF ISLAMIC LEARNING

Introduction:

The department of Islamic learning was established in 1986 with a mission to provide scholarly insight and deep understanding of Islamic knowledge and thus inculcate the Islamic vision into sound practice. The department has a team of qualified and learned faculty members with a vast experience of teaching and research. Teachers in this department are enthusiastic about acquiring innovative anagogical skills and knowledge. Students enrolled in this program are familiarized with both the theoretical underpinnings and the practical implementation of Islamic teachings in a systematic and concrete process. The department has a strong Board of studies comprising of national experts. Departmental activities are aligned with the JUW vision and mission and takes lead in initiatives emphasizing on the ethical grooming and character building of the learners based solely on the Islamic ethical system and moral values, which makes Jinnah University for Women a unique institution in one of the largest metropolitan city in the world.

The department of Islamic learning at Jinnah University for Women is purposefully cultivating social change in the community. Aspiring students are invited to enroll in our graduate and postgraduate program that will help them in developing a resilient, dynamic and wholesome personality and equip them with knowledge to generate awareness about the contemporary challenges of the Muslim world, and acquainting them with the Islamic ideology.

Aims & Objectives of Islamic Learning Department:

1) To deliver in-depth information and deep understanding of Al-Qur'an, Al-Hadith, Islamic Jurisprudence, Sunnah, Islamic History, Islamic Ideology, Islamic Culture and Civilization.

2) To cultivate a dynamic and clear vision of life among learners allowing them to contribute effectively to the culture of innovation, research and knowledge.

3) To build insight into Islamic teachings with capabilities to analyze and solve the contemporary societal issues and challenges faced by Muslims across the globe.

4) To prepare students with builtin skills of Islamic practice through experiential learning and showcase social, moral and professional development.

5) To educate students with modern techniques of Da'wah for carrying out the activities of Da'wah globally.

6) To acquaint the students with parallel ideologies and philosophies of the contemporary world and enable them to critically analyze these conceptswith the lens of Islamic sources in a meticulous manner.

7) To produce competent and diligent Islamic scholars with in-depth knowledge of primary sources of Islamic sharia' a including the Holy Qur'an, Sun-nah, IjmaaSahaba, Ijtihad and Qiyas.

Vision:

To generate feasible opportunities for balanced and harmoniuous development of individuals and society and reconstruction of society on the principles of Islam in order to facilitate education, community service and research in domain of Islam learning in order to ensure the Islamic ideological, ethical, intellectual, social-economical and technological development alignes with the norms, values, ideals and principles of Islam.

Mission Statement:

DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY

INTRODUCTION

The Department of Psychology provides students with the opportunity to develop an understanding of human behavior and experience from a variety of theoretical perspectives. The faculty of psychology specializes in a wide variety of psychological topics including physiological, clinical/community, health and psychopathology, counseling, cognitive, social, and developmental psychology. The department also offers several courses of general interest to non-majors and students in related fields.

The psychology major develops an educational background beneficial to several careers in psychology. The department seeks to help students develop an understanding of the theories and methods that guide the science and practice of psychology by integrating

- Readings from the major theoretical perspectives
- Discussion of theoretical and applied issues
- Practice in empirical methods
- Participation in community interventions/Services

Department of Psychology offers specialization in three major areas of the field.

1. Applied Psychology
2. Clinical Psychology
3. Industrial & Organizational Psychology

Vision

Our aim is to aspire the young learners to understand human behavior and cognition scientifically and objectively with a focus to make them professionals who will be ethically competent to transfer their learning into the practice.

Mission

Our mission is to combine excellence in scientific research with excellence in teaching our graduate and undergraduate students. The department aims towards a holistic understanding of human beings based on scientific grounds. It is to develop critical thinking skills through didactic, laboratory and practical training experiences, leading to an in-depth understanding of the relationships among theory, research, and application. The department also aims to equip the students with practical skills required to fulfill the role of a psychologist.

VISUAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT

Introduction:

In the department of visual studies at the Jinnah university for women, this multidisciplinary field examines how visual elements shape our understanding of the world, society, and culture. We provide an environment in which student will develop their creative skills, have the freedom to grow artistically and intellectually, and be challenged to reach beyond their limits. The department offers degrees in BS in Textile Design, Fashion Design,Graphic Design and Fine Arts that aims to a foster challenging and innovative learning environment, support creative and academic exploration, providetechnical and professional mentoring to the students. Visual Studies department is a broad and interdisciplinary field that encompasses the analysis and interpretation of visual culture. This includes a wide range of visual artifacts such as art, photography, advertising, fashion, textile, design, and digital media. It also explores the cultural, historical, and societal contexts in which these visuals are created and consumed.

Vision

Visual studies departments aim to provide a well-rounded education in visual culture, art, and media. They prepare students to analyze and participate in our visual world, promoting interdisciplinary learning, cultural awareness, and meaningful contributions to society.

Mission

A Visual Studies Department primarily centers its academic efforts on the in-depth examination of visual culture, which encompasses a diverse array of visual forms, such as art, film, photography, advertising and beyond. The overarching mission of such as department is to explore, analyze and understand the significance of these visual phenomena in our society. This involves delving into the historical, cultural, and socio-political contexts in which visual expressions emerge and evolve. Through rigorous scholarly inquiry, students are equipped with the tools to critically assess and interpret visual materials and, in doing so, gain a deeper appreciation of their impact on our world. Ultimately, the goal of a Visual Studies Department is to foster a comprehensive understanding of visual culture encouraging students to become astute scholars, skilled artists, and proficient professionals capable of navigating and contributing meaningfully to an increasingly visual-centric society.

FACULTY OF MEDICAL AND ALLIED HEALTH SCIENCES

VISION:

To build a reputable academic environment that prepares skilled and responsible female professionals in medical and allied health sciences, contributing effectively to the healthcare sector, through quality education, clinical training, \ethical practice and innovation-driven research.

MISSION:

To develop competent and ethically grounded female healthcare professionals through an education model that bridges traditional medical and health sciences with modern scientific advancements for applied clinical and community-based learning. By integrating advanced teaching methodologies, evidence-based practices, and interprofessional collaboration, the faculty cultivates critical thinking, professional responsibility, and a deep understanding ofpatient-centered care. Through active engagement in health promotion, outreach, and context-relevant research, we aim to prepare graduates who are responsive to the evolving needs of healthcare systems and capable\ of making meaningful contributions to individual and public health.

DEPARTMENT AND DEGREE PROGRAM:

Department of Physical Therapy

The Department of Physical Therapy is dedicated to the education and development of skilled physical therapists who play a vital role in rehabilitation, mobility enhancement, and the overall improvement of quality of life.

Degree Program Offered:

- Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) – A 5-year professional degree program that equips students with theoretical knowledge, clinical expertise, and research skills in the field of physical therapy.

Faculty of Medical & Allied Health Sciences

DOCTOR OF PHYSICAL THERAPHY (DPT)

Vision:

To empower the Physical Therapy community with knowledge and evidence-based skills by integrated education and research innovations

Mission:

To educate and make professional physical therapists as clinicians, researchers, and educators who are capable of discovering and applying knowledge about physical therapy and relating physical therapy theory to practice. To draw upon the resources of the University with its rich academic environment, diverse cultural community, and connection to health facilities representing all aspects of physical therapy service delivery.

DOCTOR OF PHYSICAL THERAPHY (DPT)

Program Description:

The Doctor of Physical Therapy program is structured in alignment with the HEC Undergraduate Education Policy V 1.1. (2023) and subsequent guidelines issued by HEC with an aim to effectively address the evolving healthcare needs of both Pakistan and the broader global community. Rooted in evidence-based practice and informed by contemporary healthcare principles, the program is designed to equip students with a strong foundation of theoretical knowledge, practical skills, and therapeutic competencies necessary to respond to emerging and persistent health challenges. In a country like Pakistan where the prevalence of musculoskeletal disorders, neurological impairments, and chronic lifestyle-related diseases remains a critical public health concern—there is an increasing need for well-trained physical therapy professionals capable of delivering rehabilitative and preventative care. The Doctor of Physical Therapy program is structured to prepare students to fulfill this need by offering a comprehensive and focused curriculum and allied standards that include specialized courses in orthopedic and neurological rehabilitation, geriatric care, sports therapy, and related domains. In addition to core subject knowledge, the program emphasizes critical thinking, problem-solving, informed decision-making, and effective communication within collaborative and interdisciplinary care environments. Students will also be encouraged to adopt a holistic, patient-centered, and preventative approach to physical health that not only supports individual recovery but also promotes functional independence, mobility enhancement, and overall quality of life. Upon successful completion of the program, graduates will emerge as skilled, compassionate, and adaptable physical therapists, well-prepared to make meaningful contributions to the healthcare landscape both within Pakistan and on the international stage.

Program Educational Objectives (PEO)

Program Educational Objectives (PEOs) for a Five-Year Doctor of Physical Therapy Degree

Program includes:

1. Carry out patient/client assessment / reassessment and evaluate and interpret the assessment by integrating concepts from biological, physical, behavioral and clinical sciences to make a physical therapy diagnosis and develop a treatment plan.
2. Make clinical decisions in physical therapy by employing evidence-based practice and critical thinking.
3. Screen patients to identify appropriate patients for physical therapy services and refer patients to relevant consultants or other members of interdisciplinary team members as appropriate.
4. Collaborate with patients, members of interdisciplinary team to develop and implement an evidence-based plan considering the available financial and human resources.
5. Examine theoretical and scientific basis of physical therapy practice, collect and evaluate data, review published literature and apply findings in the delivery of care.

CONVOCATION - 2024

DEPARTMENT OF HOMEOPATHY

INTRODUCTION OF DEPARTMENT OF HOMEOPATHY

Bachelor of Homeopathic Medical Sciences (BHMS) is a five year degree program in Alternative medicine, equipped with latest knowledge of modern medical sciences as well as traditional Homeopathic Philosophies. BhMS is a 5 year degree program with one year compulsory house job approved by HEC and NCH.

The department of Homeopathy , JUW provided with:
1) Qualified faculty members
2) Standard and well established library and labs
3) Healthy environment to promote extracurricular activities
4) Medical campaign and community facilitations
5) Educational visits

Mission of BHMS

1-To provide comprehensive and high-quality academic education in homeopathy, integrating theoretical knowledge with practical and clinical skills.
2-To develop homeopathic physicians who understand and apply classical homeopathic principles while also being competent in the fundamentals of modern medicine.
3-To promote the philosophy of treating the patient as a whole — body, mind, and spirit — and not just the disease.
4-To instill ethical values, empathy, and patient-centered care among students for responsible and compassionate healthcare delivery.
5-To prepare graduates to serve rural and urban populations alike, contributing to public health and community well-being.
6=To foster a spirit of scientific inquiry, innovation, and research in the field of homeopathy for evidence-based practice.

Vision of BHMS

1-To be recognized as a premier institution for homeopathic education and healthcare services at national and international levels.
2-To produce leaders in the field of homeopathy who can contribute to the global advancement of holistic and integrative medicine.
3-To become a center for pioneering research and innovation in homeopathy, improving treatment outcomes and validating therapeutic efficacy.
4-To align the BHMS curriculum and clinical training with global standards and best practices in homeopathic medical education.
5-To encourage collaboration with other medical systems and scientific communities for integrative and complementary healthcare models.
6-To contribute to the development of a sustainable, affordable, and accessible healthcare system using homeopathy as a key tool.

F.M. RADIO & AUDIO / VISUAL LAB OF JINNAH UNIVERSITY FOR WOMEN KARACHI

Role of the Audio/Visual (A/V) Lab:

- Serves as a key platform promoting the creative and academic activities of JUW.
- Plays a significant role in highlighting student and faculty talent within and beyond the university.

🔊 F.M. Radio "Sada-E-Talbaat" (91.8 MHz):

- Operated under the A/V Lab to broadcast campus-based educational and extracurricular content.
- Helps discover and polish the natural communication and broadcasting skills of students and staff.
- Many former student contributors now work professionally as:
- Radio Jockeys (RJs)
- Anchors
- News presenters
- Program hosts
- Producers and console operators

📻 Training & Learning Opportunities Students enrolled in Radio/TV/News and Production courses get:

- Theory-based classroom instruction
- Hands-on technical training using visual tools
- Real-world broadcasting experience before professional entry
- Entirely managed and executed by students under expert supervision.
- Frequent activity in control rooms where students perform roles like anchors, RJs, producers, and technicians.

🎥 TV Studio Facilities Fully soundproof studio equipped with:

- Grid lighting systems
- Chroma wall
- Latest video/audio recording gear

Used for recording a variety of TV formats:

- Dramas
- Talk shows
- Discussion panels
- Students handle production roles with guidance from faculty across all departments.

Post-Production Setup Features high-end computers for:

- Audio editing
- Non-linear video editing
- Motion graphics
- Skilled technical staff support students in all post-production processes.

Media Coverage & Broadcasting A/V Lab covers all key university events such as:

- Webinars
- Seminars
- Exhibitions
- Sports and workshops
- Most events are aired live via F.M. Radio "Sada-E-Talbaat".

Archive & Digital Learning

- A/V Lab has built a rich archive of audio-visual recordings.
- During the COVID-19 pandemic, the lab enabled remote learning by broadcasting classroom lectures.

Future Vision

- The lab aims to evolve into a full-scale Educational TV Centre for the university.

EXAMINATION RULES

- In each semester, students may be required to examine as follow.

Nature of Examination Quizzes	Weightage (Min/Max) 5 - 10%
Mid Semester Examinations	20- 25%
Assignments/Presentations/ Practical	5- 25%
Final Examination	35- 40%

Note: In case of a course with the composition of 4(3+1), (03 credit hour theory and 01 credit hour practical) the weightage for the practical may be considered 25%. All are passing heads.

- Students are required to take the prescribed number of courses in a semester.
- For promotion to the next academic year, students must have passed in at least 80% of the courses offered during the particular academic year. For example, if five courses per semester are offered in an academic year, then for promotion from first year to second year, the student must pass in eight courses.
- Students of Pharmacy are allowed to repeat any s rses in which they obtained 'D' or 'C' grades, given they have cleared all courses, but are short of required 2.5 CGPR for the award of degree.
- A maximum number of three attempts, including the first attempt, are allowed to qualify a course.
- Students failing to qualify a course in first attempt shall not be given a rank (merit position).
- A student who becomes absent in the regular mid-term test or fails to qualify this test, a second mid-term test shall be arranged just after the terminal examination of the course.
- In case a student misses the Mid-Term Test in a course, her result of the course shall be compiled without the marks of the Mid-Term Test.
- For outgoing students that fail in their final year examinations, a special examination shall be arranged after the declaration of their results.

Note: These Policy guidelines are subject to change according to HEC policy guidelines for semester system

COMPUTATION OF SEMESTER GRADE POINTAVERAGE (GPA) AND CUMULATIVE GRADE POINT AVERAGE (CGPA) Fractionalized Grading System

Grade	Grade Points	Percentage obtained in a Semester System
A	3.67 - 4.00	85 and above
A-	3.34 - 3.66	80 - 84
B+	3.01 -3.33	75 - 79
B	2.67 - 3.00	71 74
B-	2.34 - 2.66	68 70
C+	2.01 - 2.33	64 - 67
C	1.67 - 2.00	61 - 63
	1.31 -1.66	58 - 60
D+	1.01 - 1.30	54 - 57
D	0.10 - 1.00	50 - 53
F	0.00	Below 50

GPA:

This is a figure ranging preferably from 0.00 to 4.00 be used to indicate the performance of a student in the semester concerned. A standard scale of 0.00 to 4.00 is recommended to all HEIs

$$\text{GPA} = \frac{\text{Sum over all courses in a Semester (Course Credit Hours x Grade Point Earned)}}{\text{Total Semester Credit Hours}}$$

Semester Grade Point Average (GPA) and Cumulative Grade Point Averages (CGPAs) will be calculated using the following relationships:

$$\text{CGPA} = \frac{\text{Sum over all taken courses in all Semesters (Course Credit Hours x Grade Point Earned)}}{\text{Total Credit Hours taken in all Semester}}$$
